Audio 655 headset My cat chewed the wire The headset was discontinued, so I bought the updated model, the Plantronics.. First: I know you don't recommend USB headsets However, I've been podcasting for two years with one, and it is very important to me that my mic quality remains the same.. I tried a Logitech G35, but it doesn't capture the same vocal tones I had a Plantronics.. I tried different USB ports - nothing Plantronics Audio 655 Usb Dsp. The Plantronics Audio 628 USB Stereo Headset is compatible with any Windows or Mac.

Keeping your Plantronics Voyager Legend is a good troubleshooting step if your headset stopped working and it's also a good idea to update your headset so often for the best performance.. If you need to switch back and forth, we recommend the Plantronics Savi W740 Wireless Headset that allows you go switch between.. Audio 655 DSP The sound was As though everything was playing at 22,000 Hz Same with my mic quality.. Also, every few minutes, I would lose the ability to transmit audio through Ventrilo until I reconnected.. I plugged it into another computer (almost exact same build as mine) - same problem.
